[22042001]

Parow Partnership Ltd. and Elkhorn Partners L.P. said they may seek proposals from third parties relating to a sale or restructuring of CACI International Inc.

[22042002]

In a filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Parow and Elkhorn, which together hold 8.685% of CACI's common shares, said they think it is in the best interest of CACI stockholders that the company be sold.

[22042003]

CACI, based in Arlington, Va., said it had not seen the filing by Parow and Elkhorn and therefore had no comment.

[22042004]

The partnerships said they may seek board representation, and they may seek the support of CACI's board and other major shareholders in connection with their plans.

[22042005]

According to the filing, Parow and Elkhorn are based in Elkhorn, Neb., and are controlled by the same general partner, Alan S. Parow.

[22042006]

Their combined stake consists of 880,500 CACI common shares, including 86,500 shares bought in the past 60 days at $ 2.3125 to $ 2.4375 a share.

[22042007]

Additional shares may be bought or sold in the open market, in private transactions or otherwise, depending on market conditions and other factors.
