

Document 1334

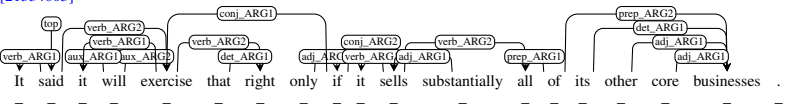

[21334001]

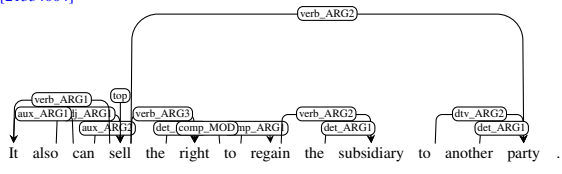

[21334002]

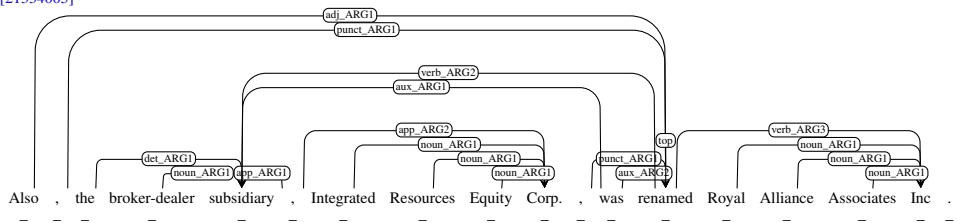

[21334003]

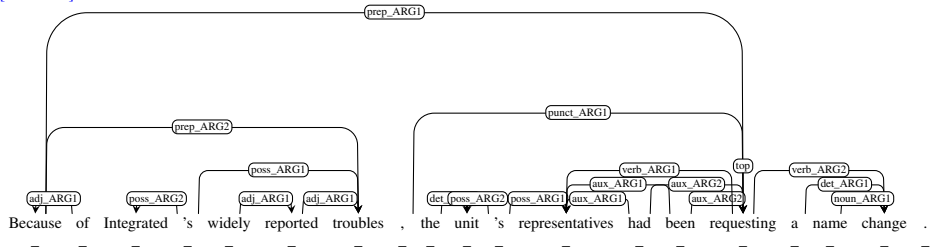

[21334004]

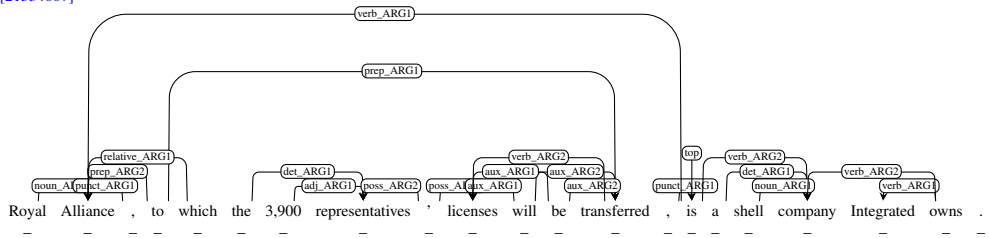

[21334005]

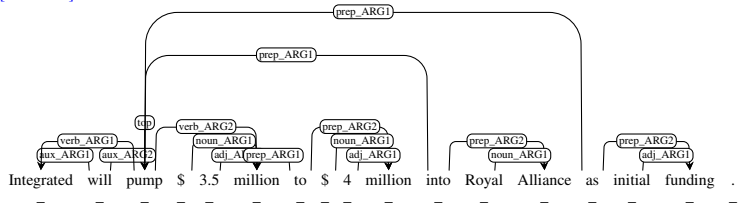

[21334006]

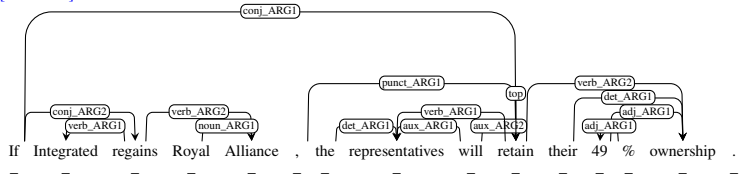

[21334007]

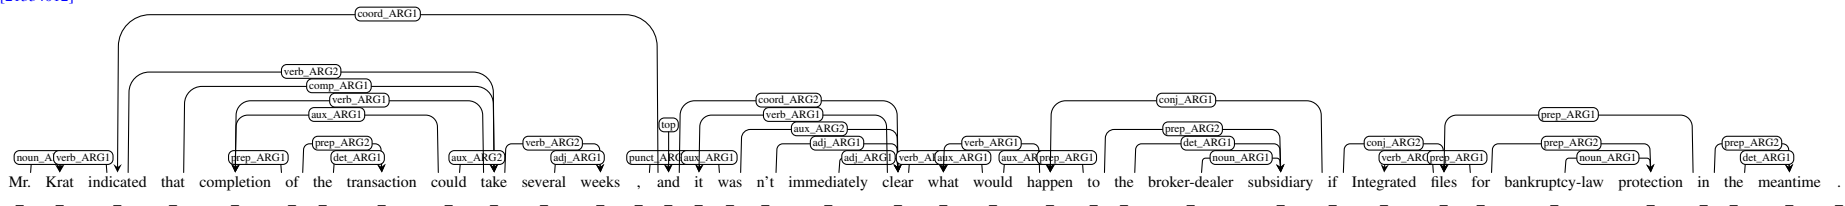

[21334009]

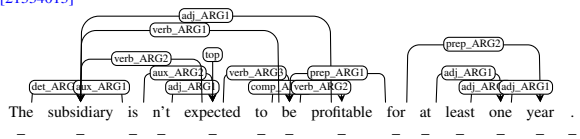

[21334011]

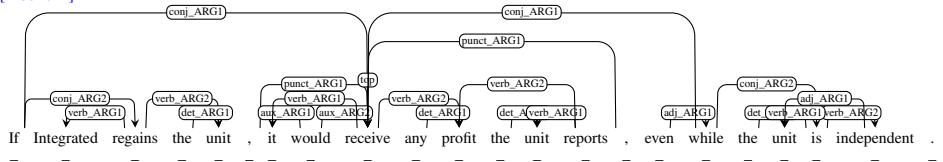

[21334012]

[21334013]

[21334014]

If the deal closes , the two officers will draw salaries from the independent operation , not from Integrated .

Many aspects of the agreement were worked out Wednesday in Chicago, when integrated senior managers met with about 150 representatives.

Figure 1 illustrates a syntactic tree for the sentence "Integrated made its announcement after the market closed." The tree structure is as follows:

- top (root) branches into conj ARG1 and conj ARG2.
- conj ARG1 branches into verb ARG1 and det ARG1.
 - verb ARG1 is the word "made".
 - det ARG1 is the word "its".
- conj ARG2 branches into verb ARG2 and det ARG2.
 - verb ARG2 is the word "closed".
 - det ARG2 is the word "the".
- The word "Integrated" is the subject of the first clause.
- The word "market" is the subject of the second clause.
- The word "after" is a connector between the two clauses.
- The words "announcement" and "closed" are the main verbs of the two clauses respectively.

In New York Stock Exchange Composite trading , Integrated shares closed at $ 1.125 , up 12.5 cents