

Document 0044

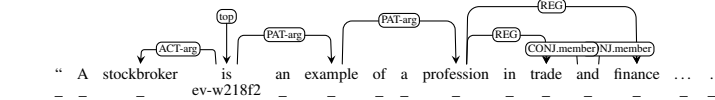

[20044001]

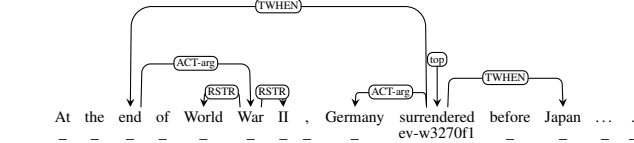

[20044003]

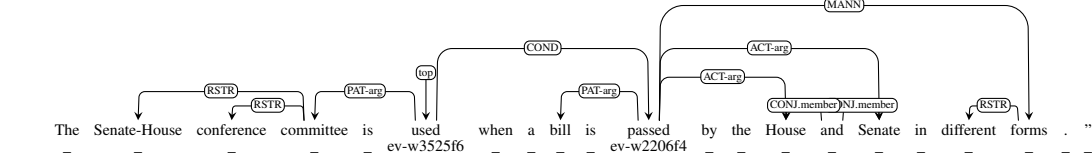

[20044004]

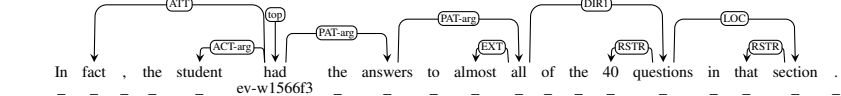

[20044005]

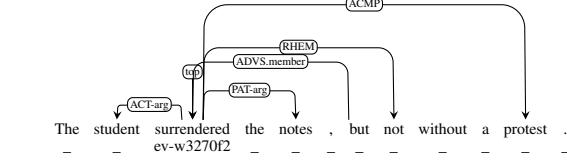

[20044006]

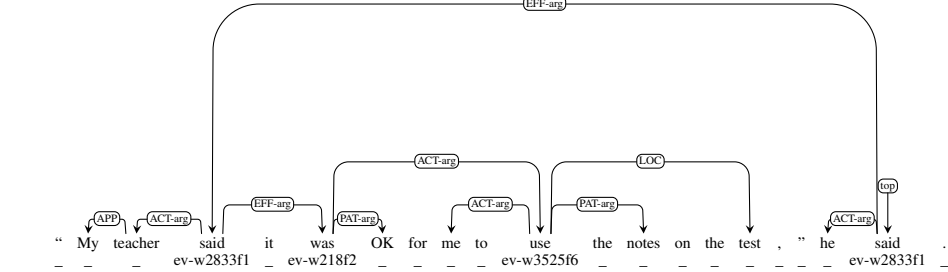

[20044008]

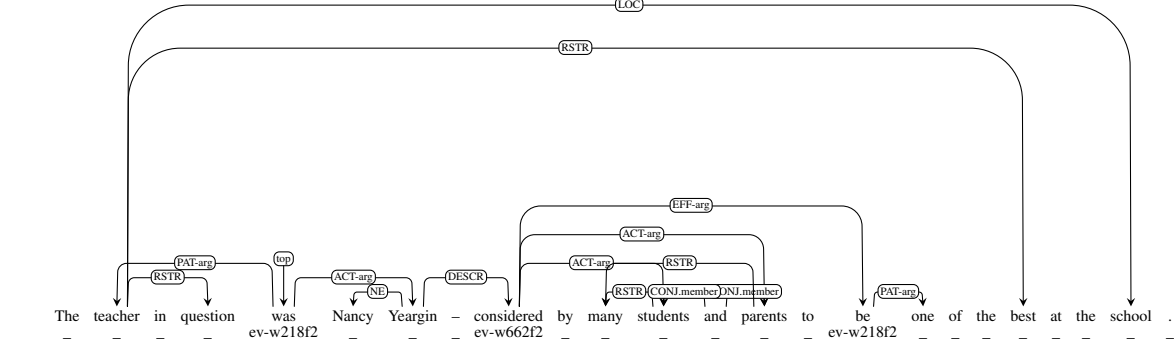

[20044009]

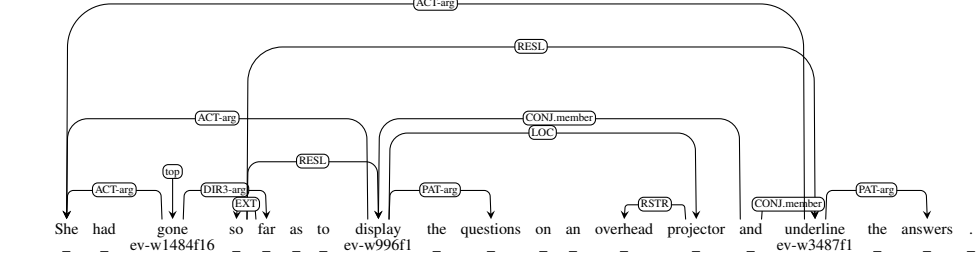

[20044010]

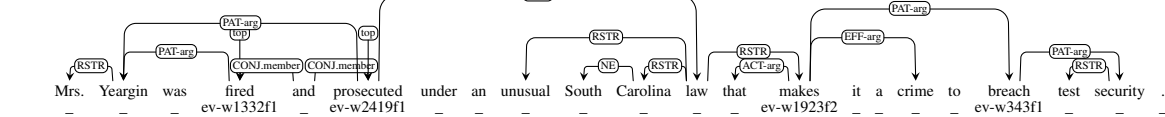

[20044011]

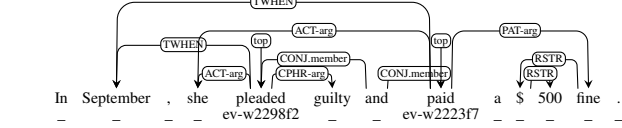

[20044013]

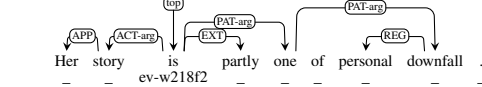

[20044014]

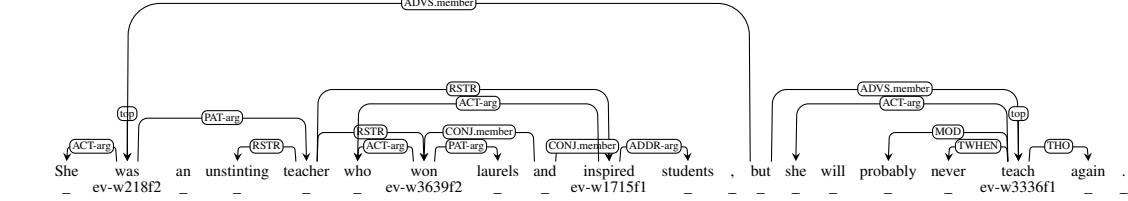

[20044015]

[20044017]

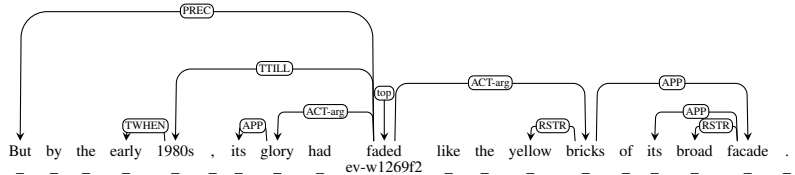

[20044018]

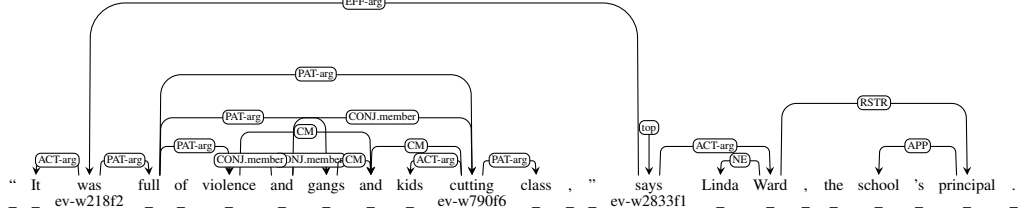

[20044020]

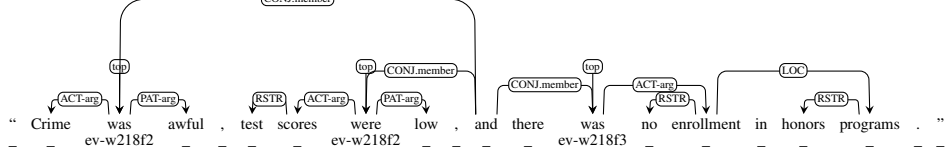

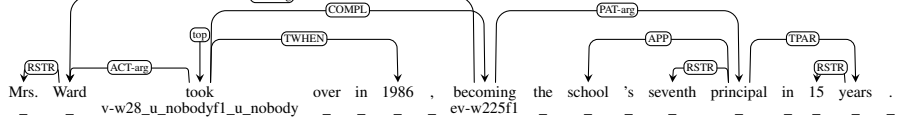

[20044049]

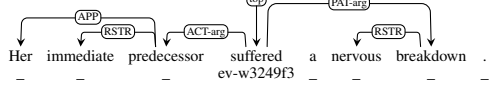

[20044050]

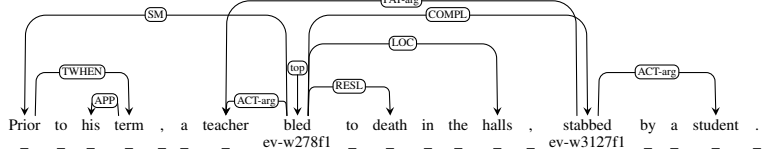

[20044051]

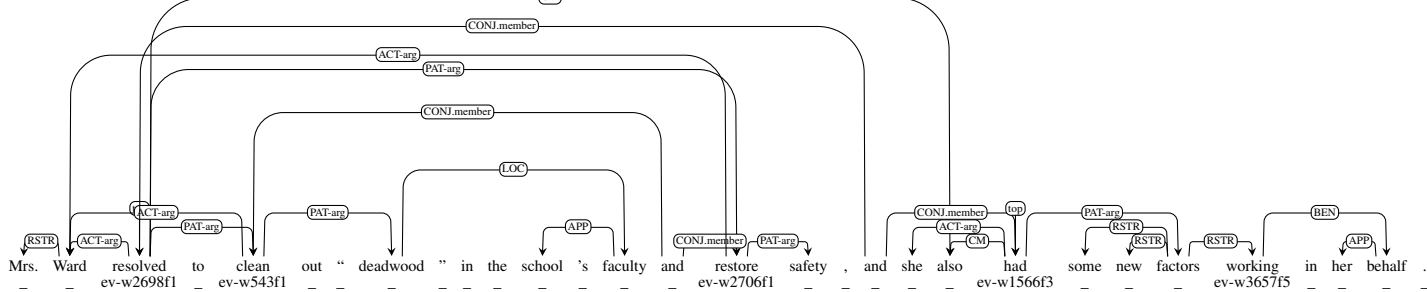

[20044052]

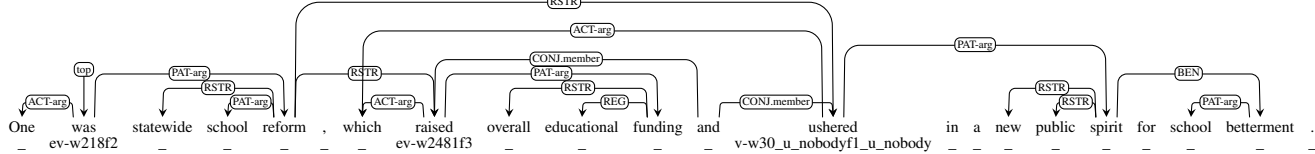

[20044053]

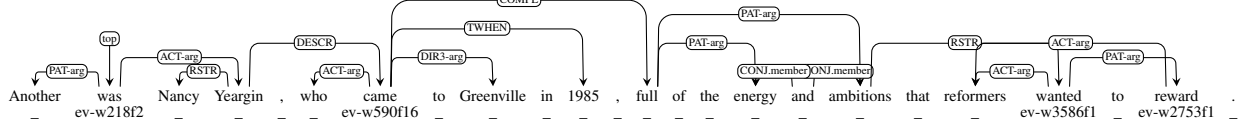

[20044055]

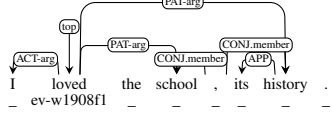

[20044056]

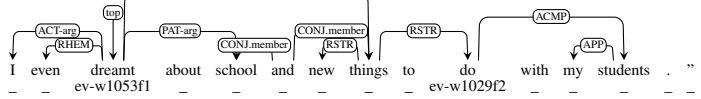

[20044057]

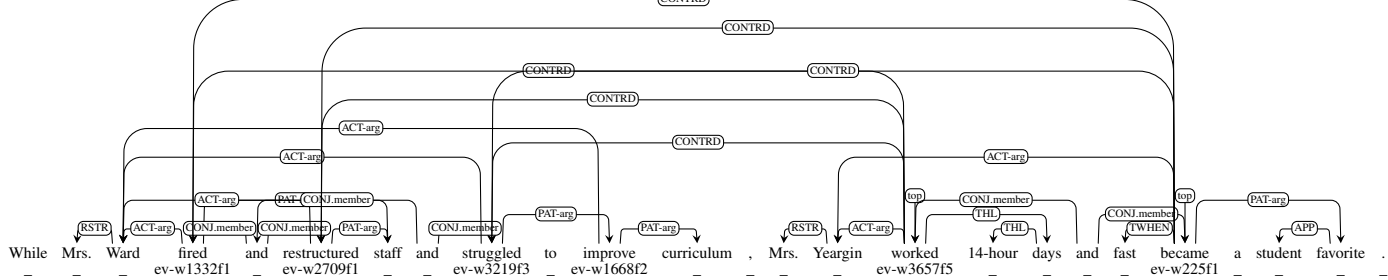

[20044059]

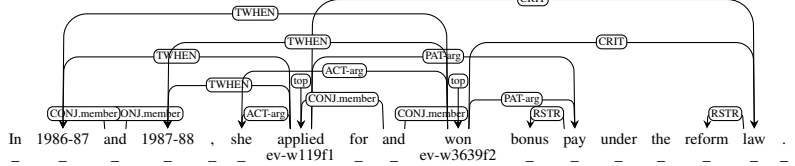

[20044060]

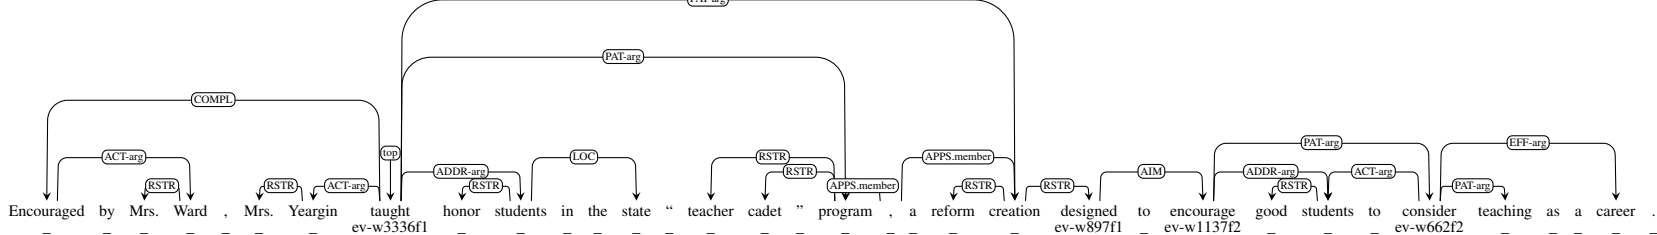

[20044061]

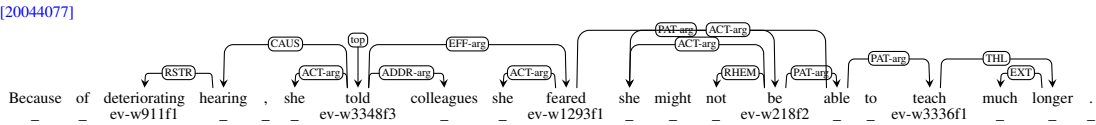

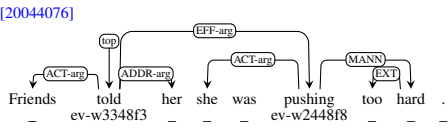

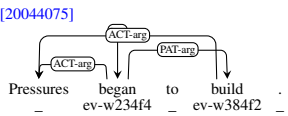

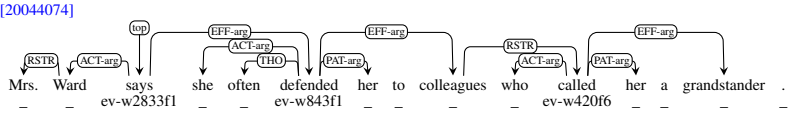

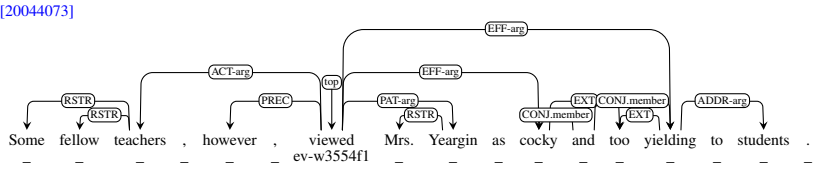

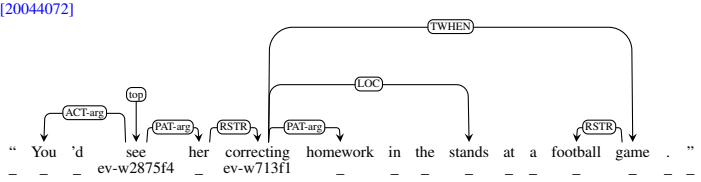

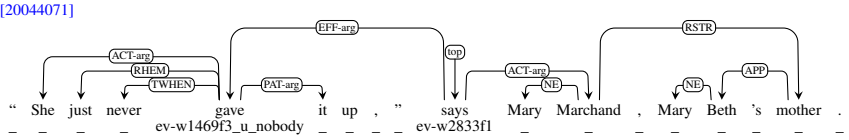

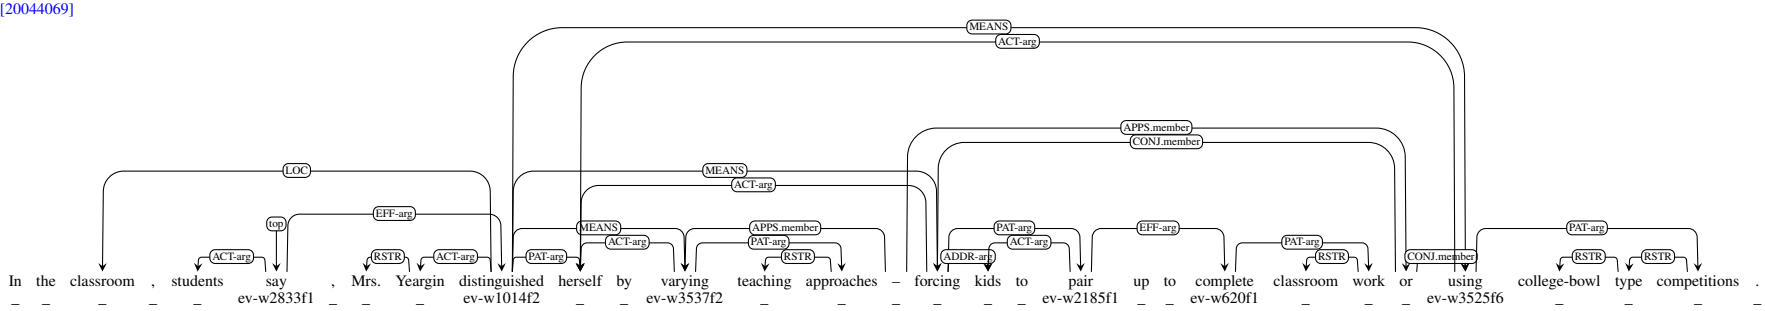

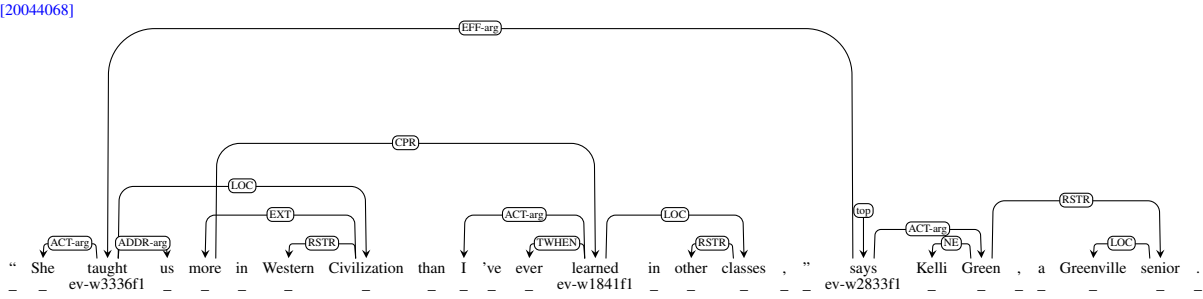

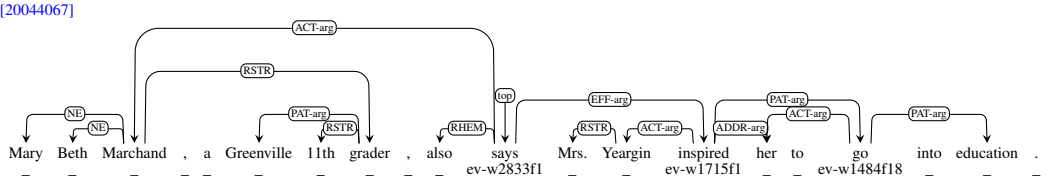

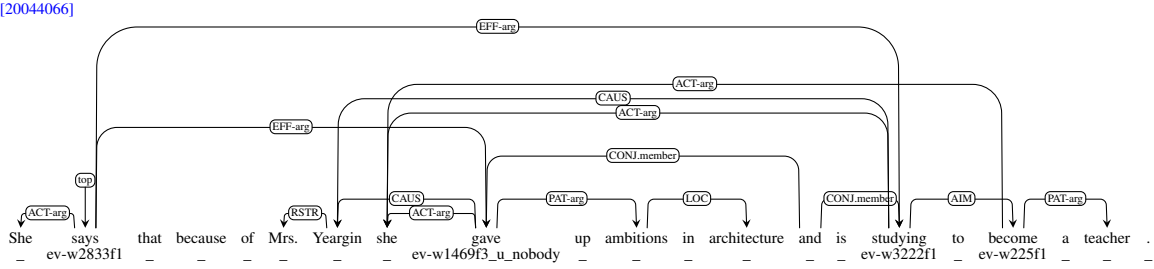

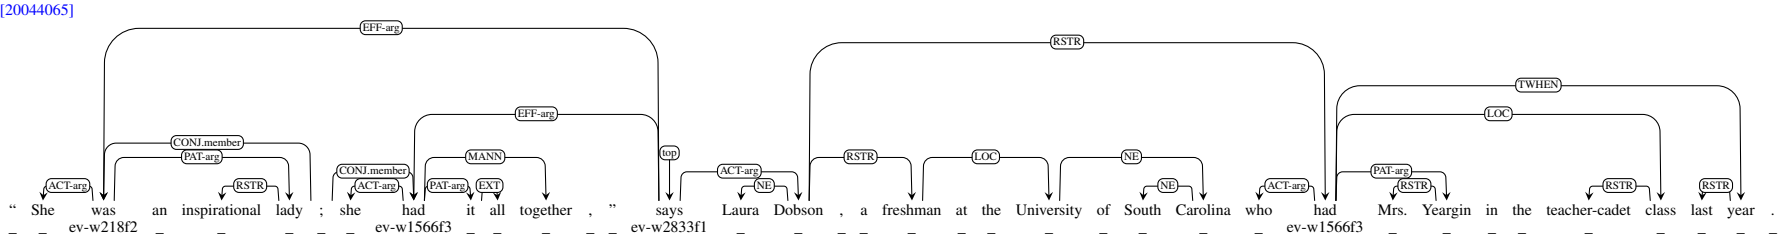

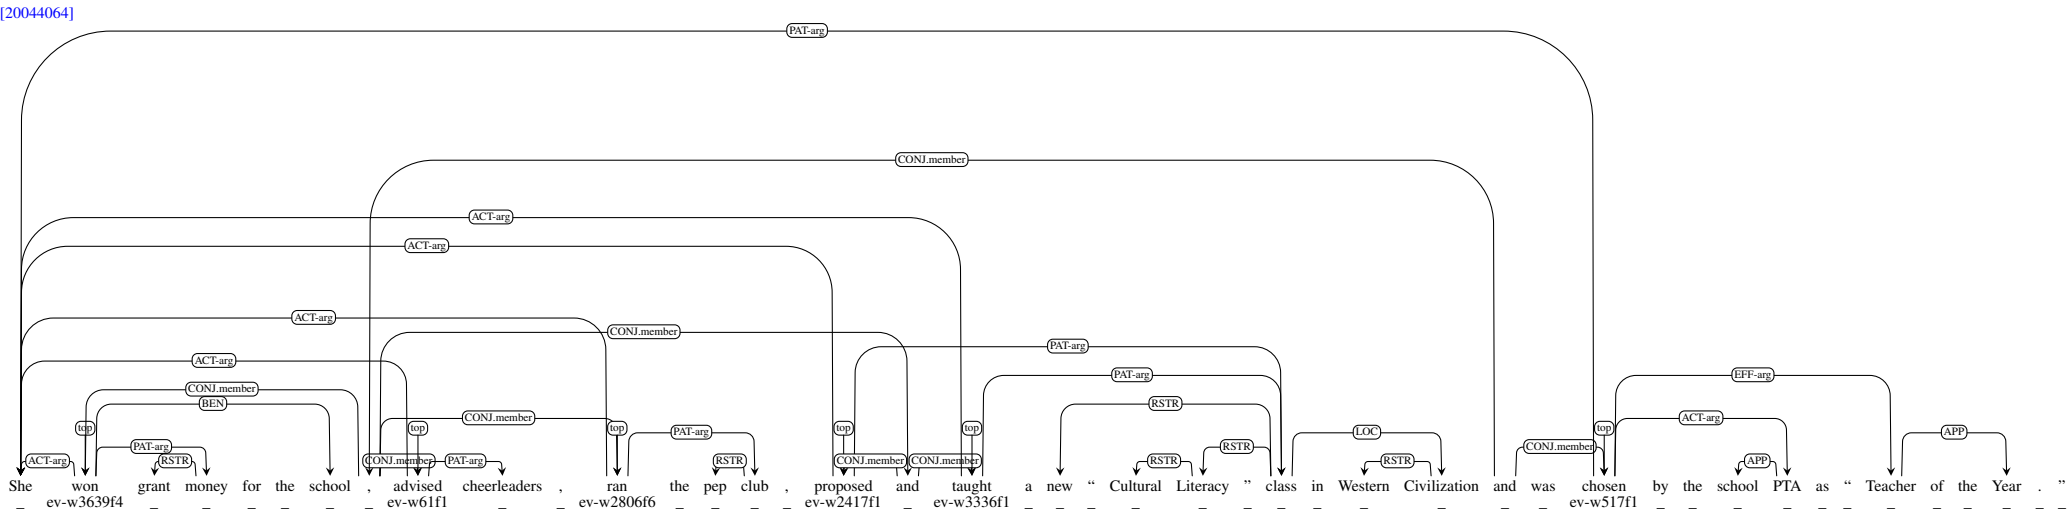

[20044062]

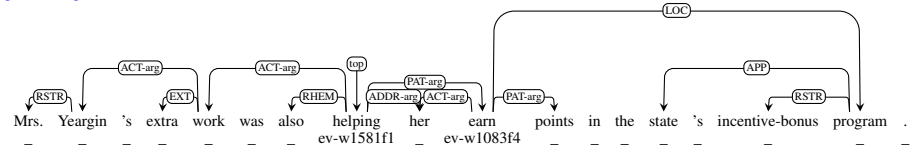

[20044063]

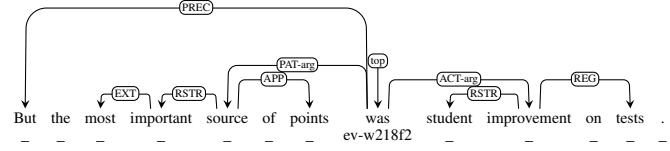

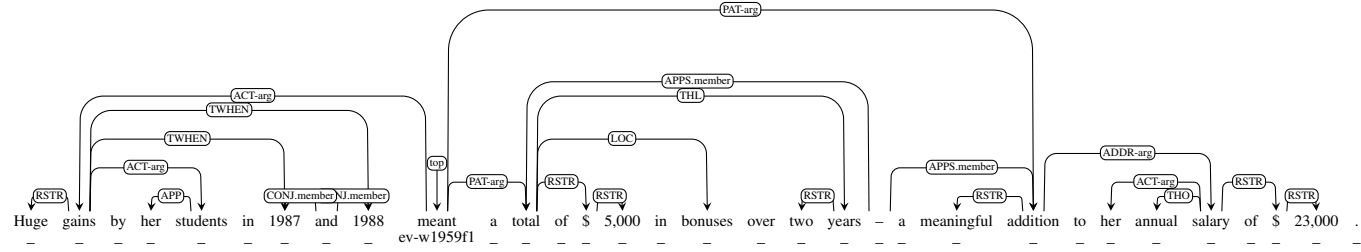

[20044078]

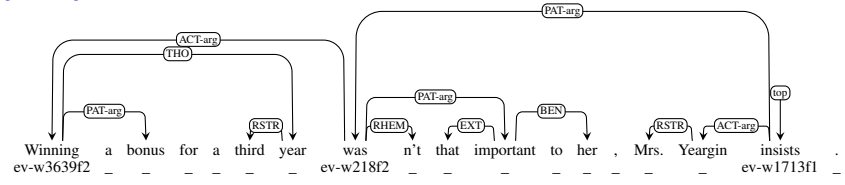

[20044079]

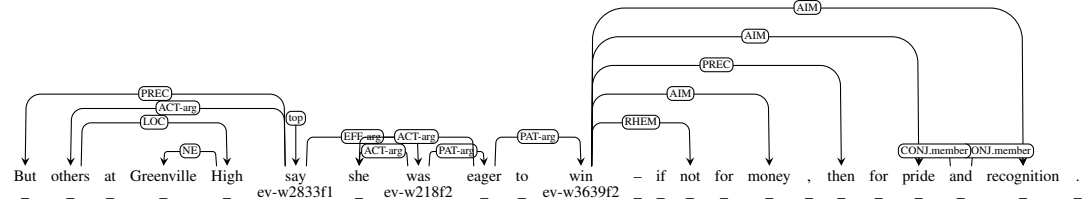

[20044080]

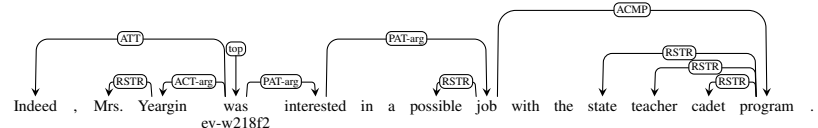

[20044081]

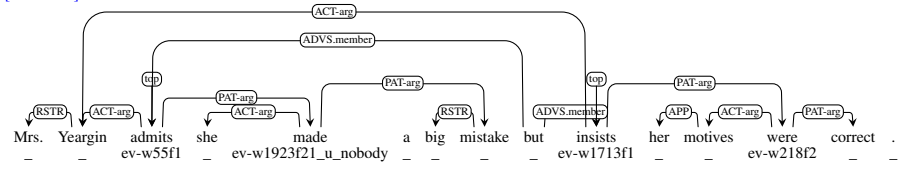

[20044082]

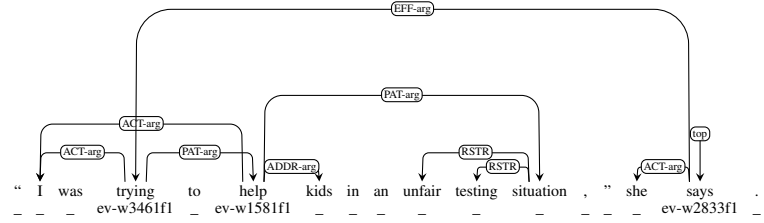

[20044084]

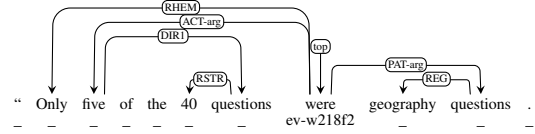

[20044087]

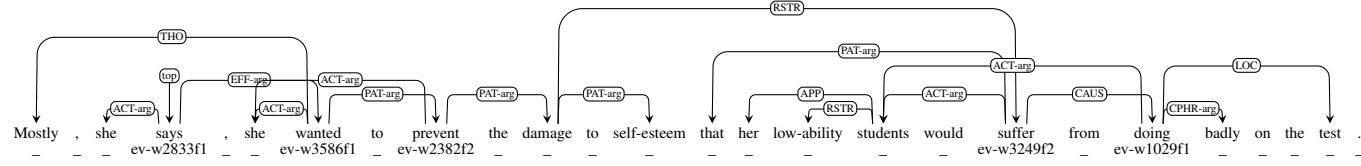

[20044088]

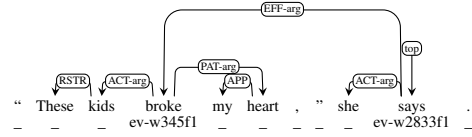

[20044089]

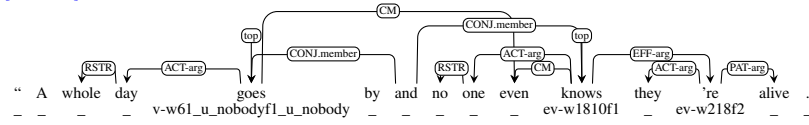

[20044092]

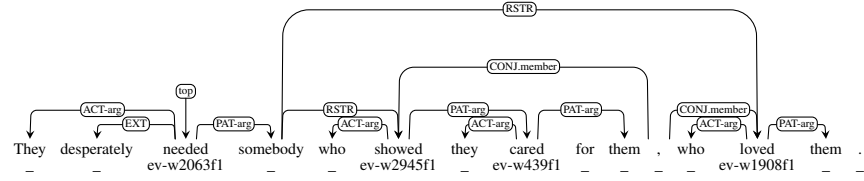

[20044093]

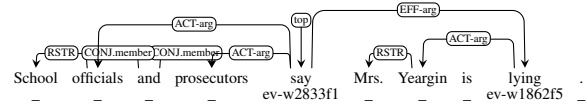

[20044094]

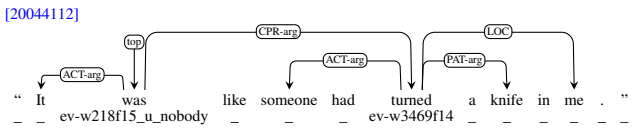

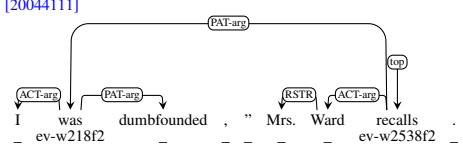

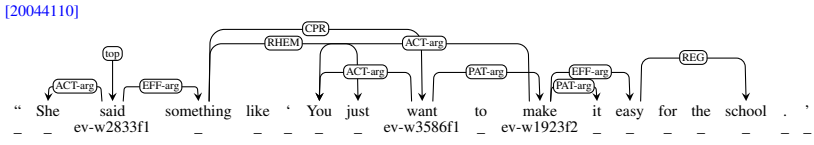

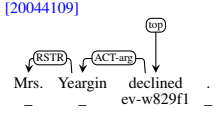

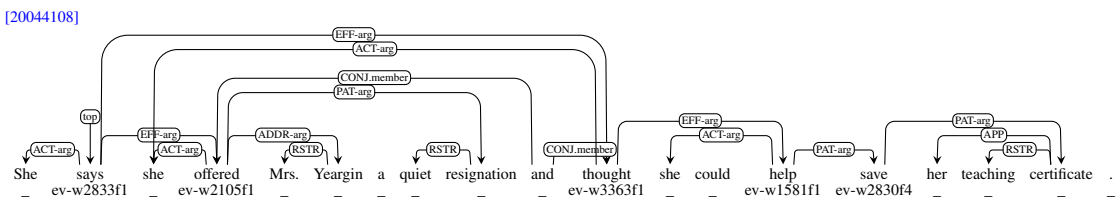

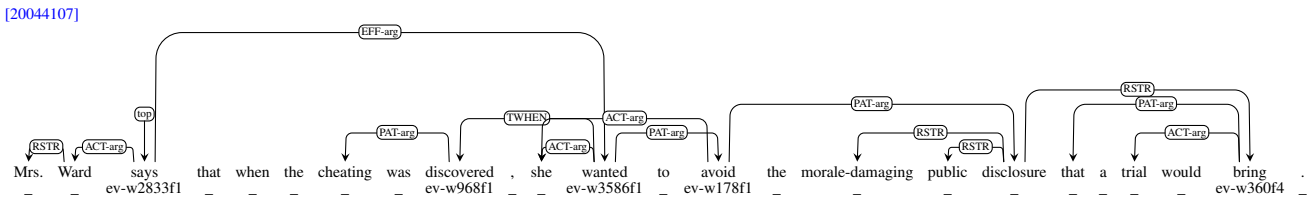

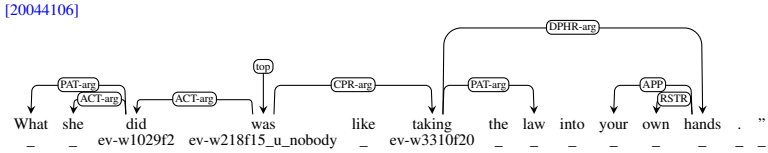

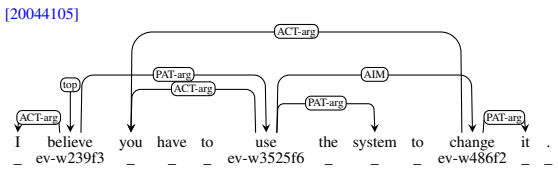

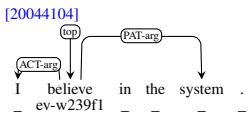

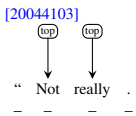

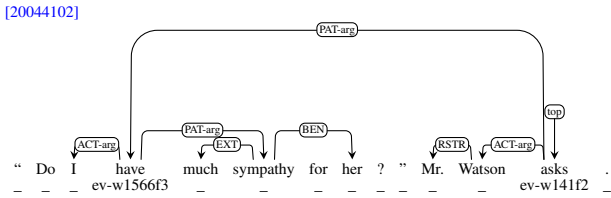

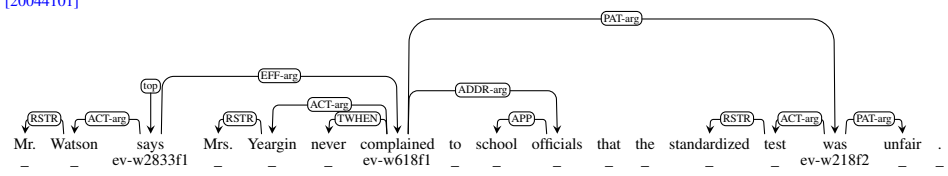

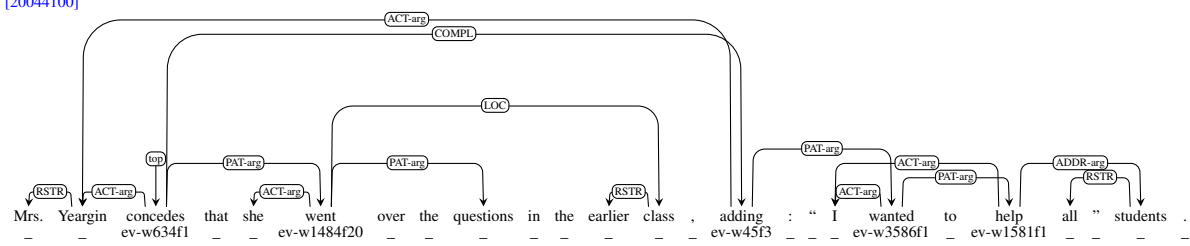

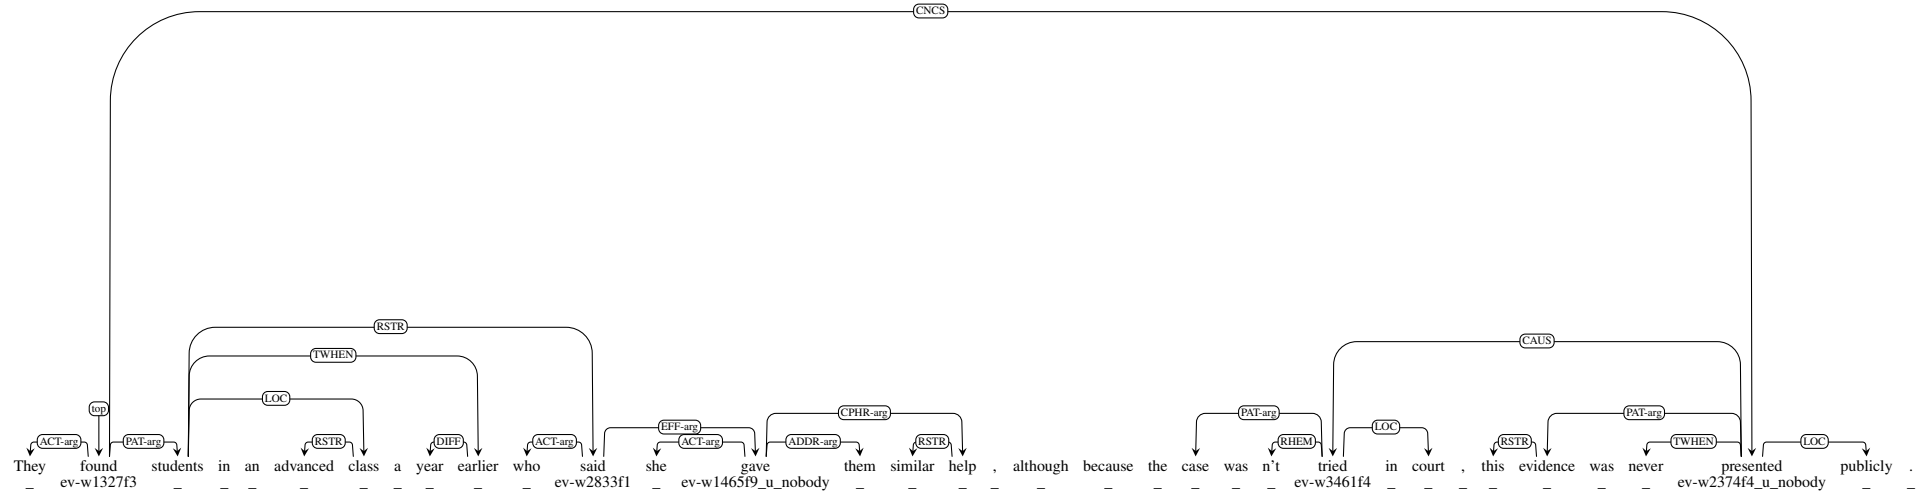

[20044095]

[20044097]

[20044098]

[20044114]

The school-board hearing at which she was dismissed was crowded with students , teachers and parents who came to testify on her behalf .

[20044115]

Supportive callers decried unfair testing , not Mrs. Yeargin , on a local radio talk show on which she appeared .

[20044116]

The show did n't give the particulars of Mrs. Yeargin 's offense , saying only that she helped students do better on the test .

[20044118]

Editorials in the Greenville newspaper allowed that Mrs. Yeargin was wrong , but also said the case showed how testing was being overused .

[20044119]

The radio show " enraged us , " says Mrs. Ward .

[20044120]

Partly because of the show , Mr. Watson says , the district decided not to recommend Mrs. Yeargin for a first-time offenders program that could have expunged the charges and the conviction from her record .

[20044121]

And legal authorities cranked up an investigation worthy of a murder case .

[20044122]

Over 50 witnesses , mostly students , were interviewed .

[20044123]

At Greenville High School , meanwhile , some students - especially on the cheerleading squad - were crushed .

[20044124]

" It 's hard to explain to a 17-year-old why someone they like had to go , " says Mrs. Ward .

[20044125]

Soon , T-shirts appeared in the corridors that carried the school 's familiar red-and-white GHS logo on the front .

[20044126]

On the back , the shirts read , " We have all the answers . "

[20044127]

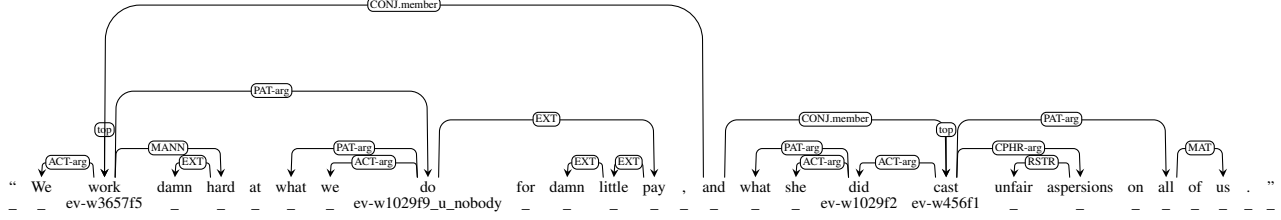

Many colleagues are angry at Mrs. Yeargin .

[20044128]

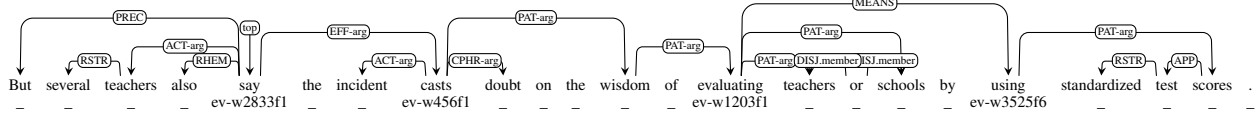

" She did a lot of harm , " says Cathryn Rice , who had discovered the crib notes .

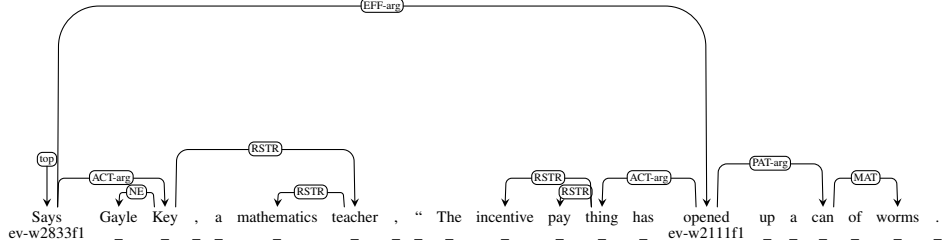

[20044129]

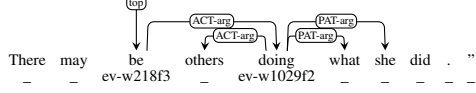

[20044130]

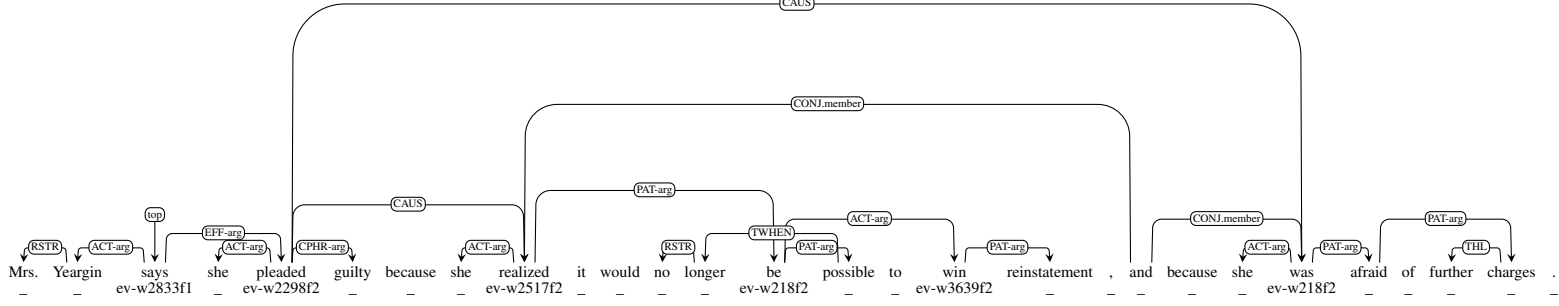

[20044131]

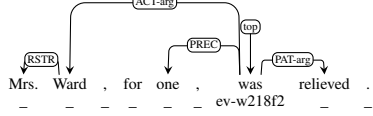

[20044132]

[20044133]

[20044134]

[20044135]

