It is quite unfortunate that you failed so miserably in reporting the Hurricane Hugo disaster .

[21786002]

Your Sept. 27 page-one article " Charleston Lost Quite a Lot to Hugo , Especially Gentility " leaves the impression that the storm was little more than an inconvenience .

[21786006]

The damage will undoubtedly prove to be one of the epic human and economic disasters of the decade in this country .

[21786009]

Your story was tasteless and insensitive .

[21786010]

Depicting the people of a traumatized city reeling from a disaster of unprecedented proportions was at the very best ludicrous under the circumstances .

[21786011]

Your narrow focus appears to be a contrived attempt to show the people of that historic city to be doddering fools .

Charlestonians are instead indomitable and have contributed mightily to the culture and history of our country for more than 300 years .

[21786017]

I suggest your reporter see Charleston next spring in its full glory .
