

Document 1520

[21520001]

The Environmental Protection Agency is getting a lot out of the Superfund program .

[21520002]

Of the $ 4.4 billion spent so far on the program , 60 % is going for administrative costs , management and research , the Office of Technology Assessment just reported .

[21520003]

Only 36 of 1,200 priority cleanup sites have been " decontaminated . "

[21520004]

Over the next 50 years , $ 500 billion is earmarked for the program .

[21520005]

At current allocations , that means EPA will be spending $ 300 billion on itself .