Document 0793

```
the Secretary 's "discretionary fund , " a honey pot used to fund projects that were n't approved ev-w1432f2 ev-w1432f2 ev-w1432f2
Jack Kemp wants to abolish it .

ev-w3586f1 ev-w7f1 _
 However , four are ev-w218f7_u_nobody
                                RSTR RSTR ongressional pork-barro same kind of noncompetitive favoritism at HUD is
                                                                                                                                                       " influence peddling
                                                                  √ RSTR →
                                    Members do n't profit directly from HUD projects
                                  They merely collect
- ev-w585f1
                                                                                                                                                                               CONJ.member NJ.memb (RSTR)
Conference committees are breeding grounds for mischief .
 They are often closed to the public and no minutes are taken . ev-w3310f17
In this case , the Members outdid themselves .
```

