Document 1460

International Signal & Control , Lancaster , Pa. , a defense-equipment manufacturer , was RESL thi has said that it would be forced to write off # 185 million against the phantom contracts , reducing its net asset value by more than half . Derek Alun-Jones , Ferranti 's chairman , has said he hoped to pursue legal action against those responsible . CONJ.member

