Document 0925

Computer Sciences Corp. said it received a U.S. Postal Service contract that will have a value of at least $ 33 million.

[20925002]

Computer Sciences will perform data processing work for the Postal Service under the three-year contract, which also includes two additional option years for which compensation has n't yet been fixed to the post of the p

1