Document 2054

```
ACT-arg CAUS

ACT-arg CAUS

ACT-arg CAUS

Yee 're sorry to repute ev-w26872 - that on Monday President Bush accepted the resignation of William Allen as in , grew understandably tired of dealing ev-w1517f1 _ _ _ ev-w815f2 called the prospect of the speech "frankly shocking . "
      Thomas Stoddard , head of the Lambda Legal Defense Fund
 We 've actually read the speech .
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         th was to make his point that Americans have rights as individuals , not as members of certain select groups ev-w173_u_nobodyf1_u_nobody __ev-w1923f21_u_nobody __ev-w1923f21_u_nobody
```

1

