Document 0443

```
PAT-up | PAT-up | PAT-up | losse
                        (REM)

n't clear how much those losses may will see the second of the se
  A network spokesman would n't comment ev-w606f2 _ _ _ and ABC Sports officials declined to be interviewed ev-w829f1 _ _ ev-w1741f1
                                                                   But some industry executives said
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  PAT-arg
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      RSTR
[20443013]
 ABC 's baseball experience may be of interest to CBS Inc. , which next season v-w28_u_nobodyf1_u_nobody — broadcasting of all baseball playoffs in a four-year over the broadcasting of all baseball playoffs in a four-year television contract priced at $ 1.06 billion .
CBS Sports President Neal Pilson has conceded only that CBS will have a loss in the first year .
                                                                                                                                                                                    ACT-arg
  nd could go even higher if the World Series end in four-game romps .
[20443018]
ABC 's hurdle was even higher this year with two teams from the same area
Then came the earthquake and a damaging delay of 11 days .
```

