Document 1730

```
AFTERSHOCKS RATTLED Northern California amid an earthquake cleanup ev-w2500f2 to much of downtown San Francisco for the first time since Tuesday 's temblor in the Bay area , three strong aftershocks , one measuring 5.0 on the Richter scale , joilted the region .
                                                     RSTR PAT-arg
      Serious injuries or damages were n't reported ev-w2671f1
                                                 (NCT-arg)

(PAT-arg)

     Thousands remained homeless ev-w2638f2
                                                                                                                                                                            CONJ.member mated that emergency assistance would total at least $ 2.5 billion (ACT-arg)
      v-w173_u_nobodyf1_u_nobody to visit ev-w3557f1
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   (CONJ.member) (C
                                                                                                                                                                            PATE | PRINCE | PRINC
[21730009]
       While the proposal won a slight majority , the 51-48 vote was well short of the two-thirds needed to approve changes in the Constitution .
[21730011]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 DESCR)—
 The House approved an $ 837 million aid package for Poland and Hungary , nearly double what Bush had requested ev-w2681f1
  [21730012]
  [21730013]
     Restre Cartage Convictions of four people for Irish Republican Army bombings that killed seven people in 1974 .
```

