Document 1137

```
LOC
               Voting Rights Act – more minorities in political office – [21137007]
[21137013]
                                     Such a policy implies that only a black politician can ev-w1661f1 divisive effects of racial gerrymandering can be [21137015]
                                                           (LOC)
[21137016]
New York City:
[21137017]
                       by the mayor to revise New York 's system of govern.
                                                                 completed a new charter , expanding the City Council to 51 from 35 members ev-w620f1
```

