Document 0684

Telxon Corp. said its vice president for manufacturing resigned and its Houston work force has been trimmed by 40 people, or about 15 %.

[20684002]

Telxon Corp. said its vice president for manufacturing resigned and its Houston work force has been trimmed by 40 people, or about 15 %.

[20684003]

The maker of hand-held computers and computer systems said the personnel changes were needed to improve the efficiency of its manufacturing operation.

[20684004]

The company said it has n't named a successor to Ronald Bufton, the vice president who resigned.