Document 0580

```
White House budget director Richard Darman had trouble finding a silver lining in the report
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     ADVS.member)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             RHEM
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           RHEM DIR3-arg
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              /CT-arg / (PAT-arg ) / (PAT-arg
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              the $ 136 billion target set b ev-w2900f1
       Neither side showed any sign of retreating ev-w2945f2_u_nobody _ _ _ ev-w2729f2 _
[20580014]
In all , federal outlays amounted to $ 1.143 trillion in 1989 , up 7.5 % from the previous year , the Treasury said ev-w2833f1
 [20580015]

(ep)
(ESTR)
(RSTR)
```

