Document 0503

Earnings at the department store division, which generates the bulk of profit, should remain at least stable, while income at the mail-order and tourism units is likely to full slightly from 1988, the company said 128500061

1